ANNEX A

THE SPECIAL COURT FOR SIERRA LEONE

The Prosecutor Against Brima Samara

ORDER IN LIEU OF INDICTMENT

The Charge

The Independent Counsel, Special Court for Sierra Leone, under Rule 77 (C) iii of the Rules of Procedure and Evidence of the Special Court for Sierra Leone (The Rules) charges Brima Samara with contempt of the Special Court, in violation of Rule 77 (A) ii of the said Rules.

The Particulars

On 09 March 2005 at the premises of the Special Court for Sierra Leone, Brima Samara knowingly and wilfully interfered with the Special Court's administration of justice by disclosing information relating to proceeding, viz. the name and identity of protected witness TF1-023, to Margaret Fomba Brima and Nench Binta Bah Jalloh, in knowing violation of an order of a Trial Chamber.

Case Summary

1. The Accused Brima Samara, born on 09 May 1971, living at 19 C Waterside Road, Upper Tengbeh Town, Freetown, was on 01 December 2004 appointed as an investigator on the Defence team for the Accused Alex Tamba Brima in the case of the Prosecutor v. Alex Tamba Brima, et al²⁰ and by the virtue of his association with the said Defence team had access to confidential information relating to the name and identity of Witness TF1-023.

2. On 09 March 2005, a witness known by the pseudonym TF1-023 testified for the first time before Trial Chamber II in the said case. In that trial Witness TF1-023 was categorised as a “Group 1 (witness of fact), Category A (victim of sexual assault and gender crimes)” witness. By virtue of that category, Witness TF1-023 enjoyed certain protective measures ordered by the Special Court³¹ including the following, namely:

- (i) All witnesses shall be referred to by pseudonyms at all times during the course of proceedings where during the hearing or in documents, including the transcript of the proceedings;
- (ii) The names, addresses, whereabouts and any other identifying information of witnesses shall be sealed and not included in any of the public records of the Special Court;
- (iii) To the extent that the names, addresses, whereabouts or other identifying data concerning witnesses are contained in existing public documents of the Special Court, that information shall be expunged from those documents;
- (iv) All documents of the Special Court identifying witnesses shall not be disclosed to the public or media;
- (v) The Defence shall refrain from sharing, discussing or revealing directly or indirectly, any disclosed non-public materials of any sort, or any information contained in any such document, to any person other than the Defence.

³¹ The Prosecutor v. Issa Hassan Sesay, Case No. SCSL/2003-05-PT, Decision on the Prosecutor's Motion for Immediate Protective Measures for Witnesses and Victims and for Non-public Disclosure, 23 May 2003; The Prosecutor v. Morris Kallon, case No. SCSL/2003-07-PT, Decision on the Prosecutor's Motion for Immediate Protective Measures for Witnesses and Victims and for Non-public Disclosure, 23 May 2003; Prosecutor v. Augustine Gbao, Case No. SCSL/2003-09-PT, Decision on the Prosecutor's Motion for Immediate Protective Measures for Witnesses and Victims and for Non-public Disclosure, 23 May 2003 and The Prosecutor v. Issa Hassan Sesay et al, Case No. SCSL/04-15-T, Decision on the Prosecution Motion for Modification of Protective Measures for Witnesses, 05 July 2004.

- (vi) The Defence shall maintain a log indicating the name, address and position of each person or entity which receives a copy of, or information from, a witness statement, interview report or summary of expected testimony, or other non-public material, as well as the date of disclosure; and the defence shall ensure that the person to whom such information was disclosed follows the order for non-disclosure;
- (vii) The Defence shall provide to the Registrar and to the Defence Office a designation of all persons working on the Defence team who...have access to any information referred to...above, and requiring the Defence to advise the Registrar and the Defence Office in writing of any changes in the composition of this Defence team....”

3. On 09 March 2005 during the morning session Brima Samura was in the Well of Court room No. 2 where Witness TF1-023 was testifying, and later spoke to certain women from the public gallery on two different occasions. The first incident arose at about 10.00a.m. when in the Well of the Court one of the accused persons (Brima Bazy Kamara) whispered to Ms. Claire Carlton Hanciles of the Defence Office that a key Defence witness who had promised to come was actually in the gallery and that the Defence teams should talk to that witness. Ms. Claire Carlton Hanciles in turn alerted Mr. Kevin Metzger, Defence Counsel for Alex Tamba Brima, who in turn instructed his legal assistant Mr. Osman Keh Kamara and investigator Brima Samura to contact a key Defence witness who happened to be in the public gallery at the time. On this occasion both Mr. Osman keh Kamara and Brima Samura left the Well of the Court and met with and spoke to a certain woman believed to be the key Defence witness, outside the public gallery. On that occasion Brima Samura handed Osman Keh Kamara a written note of three pages which the latter then took back into the Well of the Court and passed to Mr. Metzger.

4. Later on towards noon, Brima Samura was in the public gallery of Court room No. 2 where he spoke to Margaret Fomba Brima, wife of the Accused Alex Tamba Brima and Neneh Biinta Bah Jalloh, wife of the Accused Santigie Borbor Kanu and asked to meet them outside the public gallery because he had something important to tell them. The two women met Brima Samura outside of the public gallery and as they spoke Brima Samura disclosed the identity of Witness TF1-023 to these women in knowing violation of the witness' protective measures ordered by the Trial Chamber. In the course of their conversation with Brima Samura the women expressed surprise that Witness TF1-023 was testifying before the Court in the said trial. The women said to Brima Samura that they knew where the witness was resident and that they were going to attack her house.

5. Later on that day as Witness TF1-023 was being escorted from the court premises by personnel from the Witness Protection Services of the Special Court in a vehicle with tinted windows, Margaret Fomba Brima, Neneh Bintu Bah Jalloh, Anifa Kamara and Ester Kamara shouted out the witness' name and told her in Krio that they knew she was testifying in the trial and that she was being conveyed in the vehicle. The women then uttered words in Krio whose effect was to threaten and intimidate the witness as a result of the testimony she had given and was yet to give in to the Court. The threats uttered by the named women became possible only through Brima Samura's disclosure of the witness' identity to Margaret Fomba Brima and Neneh Bintu Bah Jalloh. The incident happened at about 1.30 p.m. on 09 March 2005 on the premises of the Special Court, near the Generator house, towards the exit gate as Witness TF1-023 was leaving the Court premises.
